The KNU central executive committee members and political negotiation team composed of 15 other members, including the KNU President Gen. Mutu Say Poe, have arrived at Naypyidaw to attend the Union Peace Conference – 21st Century Pinlong (the Third Meeting) to be held from July 11 to 16.

Accordingly, the activities shown below will be undertaken:

- (1) Participation in the discussions of 5 major areas, relating to the political dialogue, which are questions on the Politics, Security, Economy, Social Development, Land and Environment, for achieving basic federal principles necessary for the establishment of a durable Federation based on the democratic and federal systems.
- (2) Holding discussions on different basic views, with magnanimity and mutual recognition, as they are supportive in establishing trust, even though there is no schedule for discussing important basic federal principles, at this Conference.
- (3) The KNU, on its part, has been endeavoring to achieve the Union accords leading to national reconciliation and peace. Based on the results gained, it will consistently make the effort to amend the 2008 Constitution, including the other laws.
